Our Commitment to Continuing Legal Education – Substantive and Professionalism Courses 2021

We are delighted to welcome you to our Bennett Jones Academy (BJA) Curriculum, specifically designed for students, which has been created to highlight our upcoming courses in 2021. At Bennett Jones LLP, we are committed to helping our students and lawyers reach their highest potential as professionals, consistent with the firm's standard of excellence in client service. BJA is a comprehensive, integrated system that provides you with the tools, opportunities and support to excel in the legal profession.

Our student specific courses are delivered in the summer and early fall in order to ensure that our summer and articling students receive continuing legal education seminars that introduce you to the firm, the practice of law and some of the basic principles of law that will support you in your efforts to hit the ground running as a new legal professional.

The student curriculum is one part of our overall, firm-wide, BJA offerings. Our broader BJA offerings, delivered year round, are designed to build the best possible foundation and enhance the skills and knowledge of our lawyers at every stage of their careers. Our orientation and introductory programs provide you with the framework and tools for understanding the legal, business, ethical and practical issues you are likely to encounter in the first years of practice. Our professionalism courses support you as you grow into more senior supervisory and leadership roles and our advanced substantive programs help you keep abreast of developments in your area of practice and continue to hone your skills and expertise.

We believe in providing top-notch, value-added programming for our students and lawyers and are pleased to be offering a wide range of substantive and professionalism courses for 2021.

Our substantive courses range from understanding private equity transactions from both the legal and client perspectives, to trial preparation and mergers and acquisitions. Our professionalism courses include advanced transactional drafting, negotiation ethics and applying science to improve our health and wellness.

As you review this booklet, you will see that we have laid out the 2021 student sessions so you can know specifically what you will be learning and who will be delivering those sessions. We have also outlined a sampling of other courses that were offered previously or are planned for 2021 in order to provide you with a good sense of the overall BJA offerings that are provided to all students and lawyers.

We hope you will enjoy attending our courses, learning about the latest developments and trends in the law and gaining an insight into different areas of professionalism.

Date: Summer, 2021

Lunch: 11:45 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Course: 12:00 p.m. – 1:15 p.m.

Course Overview

Each of our department heads will take the opportunity to introduce you to their broad areas of practice, how their practices have evolved over the course of their careers and how all of our different practice areas work together to provide excellence in all client services.

This is also an opportunity to learn, in a casual setting, how each department functions, how work-flows, how teams are formed for particular transactions or advocacy opportunities and to get a sense of the people and culture of Bennett Jones.

Faculty

Brent W. Kraus

Partner, Co-Head of Corporate Department; Co-Head of Mergers & Acquisitions

Brent Kraus focuses on public and private mergers and acquisitions and capital market transactions, as well as corporate governance and shareholder activism.

Kenneth T. Lenz Q.C.

Partner, Co-Head of Litigation Department

Co-head of the firm's litigation department, Kenneth Lenz focuses his practice on insolvency and restructuring matters, including representing companies, receivers, monitors, acquirors, creditors and financial institutions in managing corporate reorganization and the realization of assets. Ken has in recent years acted in almost every significant restructuring in Alberta, and in many as counsel for the restructuring company under Companies Creditors Arrangement Act proceedings where the indebtedness and share structure are modified through a court ordered arrangement. This practice necessarily involves litigation concerning oil and gas industry agreements, lending arrangements, security enforcement and corporate governance matters.

Brad Gilmour

Partner, Head of Regulatory Department; Head of Facilities, Projects & Approvals

Brad Gilmour is head of the firm's regulatory department and co-head of the environmental department. His practice focuses primarily on environmental, energy, regulatory and aboriginal law.

Darcy D. Moch Q.C.

Partner, Co-Head of Tax Department

Darcy Moch is co-chair of the firm's tax and estates department. His practice focuses on the income tax aspects of corporate reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, takeovers, debt and asset-based financings, the formation and capitalization of income funds, partnerships and other flow-through vehicles, and cross-border financing and leasing transactions.

Date: Summer, 2021

Course: 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Lunch: 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Course Overview

Learn to write, and therefore, think better (or different, following Apple's advice). We use a radical example (comparing a concise, precise, and direct release with a standard version) to show how just two key principles and two key tools will improve your writing—forever. Let readers focus on your ideas, without getting lost in fuzzy language.

This Bennett Jones Academy professionalism series course will focus on:

- Writing more like you speak;
- Writing for your readers;
- Being concise; and
- Using active-voice verbs.

Faculty

Stephanie C. Mitchell, B.J.H, LL.B.

Speaker & Writing Coach, Telegram Writing Consulting

Stephanie Mitchell of Telegram Writing Consulting has both a law degree and a first-class honours degree in journalism. She works with lawyers, judges, and business leaders across Canada to help them learn to write and speak more clearly and persuasively.

Stephanie has years of experience choosing the best words as a news reporter and senior producer for CBC Radio in Western Canada. She has also worked in communications for the governments of British Columbia and Canada, and for the faculties of law at the Universities of Victoria, Alberta, and Saskatchewan.

Bennett Jones Academy 2021 Sessions for Students

Our Academy Leaders, Craig Kinsman and Annaliisa Sando, and Department Heads have designed the specific Bennett Jones Academy sessions for our summer and articling students that have been detailed in the preceding pages of this program guide. As a firm that is grounded in a "build from the ground up" mentality, we are dedicated to providing our students with the best resources with which to develop a successful and thriving legal career. From introductory substantive courses in Corporate Law and Litigation to professionalism courses on business etiquette, we provide a curriculum that encourages exposure to all of the major areas of law that we practice at Bennett Jones through the practical experiences and war stories of our associates and partners.

In May and June, we also run intensive, week-long summer and articling student boot-camp training sessions for our incoming student classes. Filled with sessions introducing students to our computer systems, library services and research department, these boot-camps are designed to provide our students with the tools they need to ensure a seamless transition from law school to legal practice. Our Academy Leader is here to ensure that you are ready to face your new career with a running start.

Bennett
Jones

The following pages contain a sampling of past BJA courses offered to all of our lawyers and students from January through December of each year. Learning does not end the day we graduate from law school. We recognize that our lawyers want and need to keep learning throughout their careers. Our 2021 offerings (currently in the planning stages) will cover a wide array of substantive and professionalism topics designed to provide the ongoing professional development that our lawyers want and that excellence demands.

The Ripple Effect:

Sleep, Eat, Move and Think Better for Exponential Health and Peak Performance

Bennett Jones Professionalism Series

Course Overview

Imagine if work was a place where you went to get healthier and perform to your potential. There are problems standing in the way of making that dream a reality. The world is faced with 4 inter-related epidemics – sleeplessness, obesity, inactivity and mental illness.

Fortunately, the scientific answers to these problems are available today. Sleep soundly, eat smarter, move more and think clearly. In this workshop, Dr. Wells presents the scientific solution to these global challenges. Using stories, research and simple tactics, Dr. Wells clearly outlines how to improve your health, supercharge your life and ultimately reach your full potential.

This Bennett Jones Academy professionalism series course will focus on:

This presentation offers concrete strategies on how to get better and stay better—not just for a few weeks or a few months, but for life. Optimal well-being is obtained through a commitment to the “holy trinity” of healthy living—eating better, moving better, sleeping better. Together these lead to peak performance and exponential improvements in your health.

Faculty

Dr. Greg Wells, Ph.D.

Health & Performance Expert, Physiologist, Bestselling Author

In high performance business situations, the human mind and body have to work together for ultimate results. Dr. Greg Wells is a health and high performance expert who draws the parallels between elite athletes and top executives to help business leaders perform at the highest level, even when under the most extreme circumstances.

As a high school student, Dr. Wells broke his neck in a freak accident while swimming in the ocean. After neurosurgery, he was told by his doctor that he would never perform as an athlete again. He went on to compete at the international level in swimming, competing in events such as the Nanisivik Marathon 600 miles north of the Arctic Circle, Ironman Canada, and the Tour D’Afrique, a grueling 11,000-kilometre event that is the longest bike race in the world.

Throughout his career, Dr. Wells has coached, trained and inspired dozens of elite athletes to win medals at the Commonwealth Games, World Championships, and the Olympics. He has also studied athletic performance in some of the most severe conditions on the planet, including the Andes Mountains and the Sahara Desert.

Currently, Dr. Wells is an associate professor in kinesiology at the University of Toronto and serves as a Senior Scientist in Translational Medicine at The Hospital for Sick Children. At Sick Kids he leads the Exercise Medicine Research Program, exploring how to use exercise to prevent, diagnose, and treat chronic illnesses in children.

A frequent contributor to The Globe and Mail, Dr. Wells is often used as an expert source for top media outlets including USA Today, ABC News, “20/20,” The Discovery Channel, TSN, CBC, and CTV. He also served as the sports medicine analyst for the Canadian Olympic Broadcast Consortium for the 2010 and 2012 Olympic Games.

He is also the bestselling author of three books Superbodies: Peak Performance Secrets from the World’s Best Athletes, The Ripple Effect: Sleep Better, Eat Better, Move Better, Think Better, and The Focus Effect.

Private Equity Series

Bennett Jones Substantive Series

Private Equity I – Introduction to Valuation: A Primer for Corporate Lawyers

Course Overview

This course sets the stage for both our 2015 / 2016 Private Equity Series and Mergers and Acquisition Series. Valuation affects legal due diligence, negotiation and the structure of corporate transactions. The objective of this session is to understand the methodology and techniques behind various forms of valuation with a view to better serving the needs of our clients and to put us in a position to speak the language of valuation with our clients.

Private Equity II – M&A Transactions, Buyouts and Treasury Investments

Course Overview

In finance, private equity (PE) is an asset class consisting of equity securities in operating companies that are not publicly traded on a stock exchange. This session is designed to serve as an introduction to the practice of PE law and a discussion of our role in buy-outs [both leveraged (LBOs) and management (MBOs)] & Treasury Investments.

Private Equity III – Private Equity Deal Structuring and Case Studies

Course Overview

This course brings Private Equity I and II to life and serves as a lead in to our Mergers & Acquisition Series. Using actual deal examples, this session will dissect why certain deals were structured in certain ways, why we used the agreements we did and why we conducted the due diligence and other legal work we did – all in the context of understanding what our clients were looking to achieve and how we helped them get there.

Faculty

Litigation – Expert Evidence

Bennett Jones Substantive Series

Course Overview

Expert witnesses are an essential part of every complex litigation case. Cases are won and lost on expert testimony. This presentation will cover best practices for retaining and working with experts, including how to get the most out of your expert at the least cost. Mitigation of problems arising out of the disclosure of working documents will also be addressed.

This Bennett Jones Academy substantive series course will focus on:

- Identifying the experts you need;
- Finding and retaining the expert witness;
- Preparation of expert reports and disclosure of working documents;
- Preparing your expert for trial; and
- Preparing to cross-examine the opposing experts.

Point Made: Advanced Transactional Drafting

Bennett Jones Professionalism Series

Course Overview

Legal drafting is legal thinking made visible; it is crucial that it is done well and with precision.

Lawyers are tired of transactional-drafting programs that try to "revolutionize" how they write. Ross Guberman's Advanced Transactional Drafting is different. It will help lawyers solve day-to-day drafting problems and avoid common errors and ambiguities.

This Bennett Jones Academy professionalism series course will focus on:

- Avoiding frequently litigated terms and phrases;
- Resolving common usage problems;

Throughout the workshop, we will review and edit excerpts from well-known transactions, agreements, and disclosure documents.

Participants will receive Ross's book, Deal Struck: The World's Best Drafting Tips.

Faculty

Ross Guberman

President, Legal Writing Pro LLC

Ross Guberman is the president of Legal Writing Pro LLC, a training and consulting firm. From Alaska and Hawaii to Paris and Hong Kong, he has conducted more than a thousand programs on three continents for prominent law firms, for judges and courts, and for dozens of agencies, corporations, and associations. His workshops are among the highest rated in the world of professional legal education.

Ross is also a Professorial Lecturer at the George Washington University Law School, where he conducts a seminar on drafting and writing strategy.

Ross holds degrees from Yale, the Sorbonne, and the University of Chicago Law School.

In early 2011, Oxford University Press published his Point Made: How to Write Like the Nation's Top Advocates, an Amazon bestseller that reviewers have praised as a "tour de force," "a must for the library of veteran litigators," and "an indispensable tool" filled with "practical, trenchant advice." Point Made has sold tens of thousands of copies and is now in its second edition. Ross's next book will be Point Taken: How to Write Like the World's Greatest Judges.

An active member of the bar and a former attorney at a top firm, Ross has also worked as a translator, professional musician, and award-winning journalist. After the federal takeover of Fannie Mae, Slate magazine called his 2002 article about the company "totally brilliant and prescient." In her bestseller Reckless Endangerment, New York Times business columnist Gretchen Morgenson wrote that "the article was groundbreaking and made even the most jaded Washingtonian take note."

Quoted in such publications as The New York Times and American Lawyer, Ross often comments on business, law, writing, training, and lawyer development. He has also addressed several major international conferences, including the American Society of Training and Development, NALP's Annual Education Conference, the Professional Development Consortium, the Professional Development Institute, and the Association for Continuing Legal Education. And he has been invited to speak at several judicial conferences as well.

Ross also immerses himself in the best practices for adult learning. He is a member of The American Society for Training & Development, which has awarded him its Certified Professional in Learning and Performance™ credential for passing a rigorous eight-part test and for creating a standardized writing assessment that he has since administered to thousands of lawyers worldwide.

Litigation – Trial Preparation

Bennett Jones Substantive Series

Course Overview

As a litigation associate at Bennett Jones, you will have the opportunity to observe many different approaches to arguing a client's case at trial. While courtroom styles will differ, the fundamental aspects of trial preparation will be common to most cases. The objective of this seminar is to identify the key things to consider when preparing a case for trial, and to identify areas where a junior at trial can provide the most value.

This Bennett Jones Academy substantive series course will focus on:

- Presenting documentary evidence at trial and issues to consider in preparing Agreed Exhibit Books;
- Preparing Agreed Statements of Facts and Damages;
- Anticipating evidentiary issues at trial;
- Effectively preparing your witnesses; and
- Issues to consider in pre-trial communications with the trial judge.

Negotiation Ethics: Winning Without Selling Your Soul

Bennett Jones Professionalism Series

Course Overview

National negotiation expert Marty Latz in this program will present a series of ethically challenging negotiation scenarios from a variety of legal negotiations and will lead a discussion/debate on each that will highlight three levels of analysis, all of which impact your reputation.

- Morality - Is it right to engage in certain behavior?
- Ethics - Is it ethical and/or legal under the Rules of Professional Conduct and the laws of your jurisdiction
- Effectiveness - Does it work?

Interspersed with your comments will be the insights provided – on video - by veteran business executives, lawyers and politicians, including former CEO and President of Dial Corp. Mal Jozoff, Vice President of AT&T Mary Upchurch, and Arizona Attorney General Terry Goddard.

This Bennett Jones Academy professionalism series course will focus on:

- Ethically avoid answering certain questions and sharing strategic information
- Skillfully and ethically play your leverage cards
- Use agents to insulate yourself
- Maintain objectivity and professionalism in difficult negotiations
- Solidify current and future relationships
