"New Law" as some have coined it, refers to a world within which lawyers must find creative, practical and affordable ways to meet their clients' needs - faster, cheaper and better. How are firms transforming their processes to ensure that their professionals are equipped to respond to rapidly changing demands and internal structures, and protect against competitive pressures. In this panel discussion, Gino Scapillati, Vice Chair of Strategy and Innovation at Bennett Jones, will share insights on how technological disruption and evolving client needs are transforming the business of law firms and professional service firms. Gino will facilitate an open conversation on what law firms across the globe are doing to reinvent the business and practice of law.	Gino Scapillati, Bennett Jones Marcio Baptista, Tozzini Freire Vicente Lines, Arias Vinayaga Raj Rajaratnam, Skrine Vicente Grau, Santamarina &amp; Steta
