

Shelby Morrison

Associate

T: 416.777.5528 / E: morrison@bennettjones.com

Toronto

EDUCATION

University of Guelph, BA (Hons) Criminal Justice & Public Policy, 2012

University of Windsor, JD, 2017

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ontario, 2018

Shelby Morrison has a general commercial litigation practice, with a focus on intellectual property law. She assists clients with resolving and litigating intellectual property disputes with an emphasis on trademark litigation.

Shelby advises clients in various industries including pharmaceutical, biotechnology, agriculture, retail, and luxury goods. In addition to advising clients on a range of intellectual property matters involving patent, trademark and copyright issues, she also advises clients on regulatory, product regulation and compliance matters in relation to food and drug products.

Shelby is a member of the Canadian Bar Association.

Prior to joining Bennett Jones as an associate, Shelby both summered and articulated with the firm.