

Renee M. Gagnon

Associate

T: 780.917.4251 / E: gagnonr@bennettjones.com

Edmonton

EDUCATION

University of Alberta, BA, 2008, with distinction

University of Alberta, JD, 2014

BAR ADMISSIONS

Alberta, 2015

Renee Gagnon has a general litigation and administrative law practice. Her experience includes professional negligence and discipline; employment matters; estate litigation; and corporate commercial disputes. Renee has appeared in all levels of the Alberta court system and before several administrative tribunals and appellate panels.

Renee is active in the community. She has presented on health law topics to both lawyers and health professionals. She currently sits on the Canadian Bar Association's Health Law committee. She also acts as a Moot Coach for the Health Law Moot to University of Alberta Law students taking the University's moot program. She has served as Treasurer and Director of Volunteer Alberta's board and was a member of the Canadian Bar Association – Legislative Review Committee (North).