

Corey A. Yermus

Associate

T: 416.777.4845 / E: yermusc@bennettjones.com

Toronto

EDUCATION

York University, BA, 2009, honours, cum laude

University of Detroit Mercy, JD, 2014, cum laude

University of Windsor, JD, 2014

BAR ADMISSIONS

Ontario, 2015

Corey Yermus practises business law encompassing a broad corporate/commercial practice. Corey has experience with a wide variety of transactional work including mergers and acquisitions and debt and equity financings (both domestic and international).

As well, Corey has advised clients on a diverse range and unique corporate governance and compliance matters.

Corey is a graduate of the dual Juris Doctorate program at the University of Windsor and the University of Detroit Mercy. During law school, Corey was selected for the “Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges,” and was named to the Dean’s list.

Prior to attending law school, Corey earned an Honours Bachelor Degree in psychology from York University and worked at a mid-sized accounting firm the Toronto area, where he took a keen interest in corporate structuring, finance, and taxation.