

Annie Bactol

Student Coordinator, Professional Development and Student Programs (Ontario)

T: 416.777.6079 / E: bactola@bennettjones.com

Toronto

Annie Bactol is the Student Coordinator, Professional Development and Student Programs for the Toronto office. Annie is one of the first points of contact for students applying for summer and articling student positions and assists the Director of Junior Associate and Student Programs (Ontario) with recruitment for the Toronto office.

Annie manages the administration of the applications and onboarding process, including assisting students with all Law Society matters from the start of their articling term to their call to the bar as well as coordination of student events and orientation programs in Toronto Office.