BAR ADMISSIONS

Alberta, 2013

Megan Ollivier has a corporate commercial law practice with a focus on commercial transactions within the energy sector and private mergers and acquisitions.

Megan has experience representing energy companies on a broad range of commercial transactions in Canada, including the negotiation and drafting of purchase and sale, joint venture, joint operating and partnership agreements. She also assists clients on the negotiation and drafting of energy contracts related to the development of petroleum, natural gas, oil sands and renewable resources.

Megan regularly acts for buyers and sellers with respect to private merger and acquisition transactions, including asset and share purchase transactions, amalgamations and corporate reorganizations.

Megan is a member of the Canadian Energy Law Foundation.

Prior to her bar call, Megan summered and articulated at the firm.
