Jacinthe Landry is the Managing Director for Bennett Jones' Montréal office. She oversees all non-legal services in this office, including operations, human resources, finance and marketing, while contributing to the strategy of the firm in Montreal.

With 25 years of experience in the legal and business sectors, Jacinthe began her career as a lawyer with a large national law firm before moving into management roles in legal and business operations management. Her strong background illustrates her desire and commitment to ensure the delivery of high quality legal services in Montreal for Bennett Jones.

A member of the bar and holder of an MBA from HEC, Jacinthe uses her strategic thinking and business acumen to ensure that Bennett Jones' Montreal office operates efficiently and provides market leading service that is on par with all other Bennett Jones offices.

Prior to joining Bennett Jones, Jacinthe was Director of Legal Affairs for a major telecommunications infrastructure company and before that, she held various management and professional positions for a multinational aerospace company for over 16 years.

By effectively and benevolently inspiring her team and collaborators to focus on what matters most, Jacinthe will be instrumental in establishing Bennett Jones' high quality footprint in Montreal.
