Rayna Lew has a general civil litigation practice with an emphasis on health law, occupational health and safety, employment law, and estates. Rayna advises on a variety of civil litigation matters and assists clients with disputes before both Alberta courts and many administrative tribunals.

Before becoming an associate at Bennett Jones, Rayna summered and articulated with the firm. She then clerked for the Honourable Chief Justice of Alberta, Ritu Khullar, before returning to Bennett Jones as an associate.

During law school, Rayna was the 2020 Dean's Bronze Scholar and maintained Dean's List standing throughout. Prior to law school, Rayna worked for a Member of Parliament in Ottawa.

Rayna remains active in her community and currently volunteers with the Edmonton Community Legal Centre and Jewish Federation of Edmonton. Outside of work, she enjoys baking, hiking, and attempting new artistic endeavours.
