Stephanie Paige is the Coordinator, Professional Development and Student Programs for our Vancouver office. Stephanie is the one of the first points of contact for students applying for summer and articling student positions and assists the National Director with recruiting for the Vancouver office. Stephanie manages the administration of the application and onboarding process, including assisting students with all Law Society matters from the start of their articling term to their call to the BC bar.

Stephanie also assists with our student orientation programs and ongoing professional development throughout the articling term. Stephanie works closely with all students throughout their articling period to ensure that they receive a good foundation and a successful start to their careers.
