Kate is responsible for developing the firm's knowledge management, library and innovation strategy and initiatives at the firm. She leads a team of lawyers, librarians, LegalTech and content specialists to deliver practice tools and resources that leverage the firm's intellectual capital and create efficiencies with our clients. Prior to Bennett Jones, Kate was a consultant to many Canadian, UK and global law firms advising them in the design and implementation of useful, usable and engaging KM solutions that benefited both the lawyers and their clients.

The Bennett Jones Knowledge Management group is one of the largest among Canadian law firms and comprises lawyers dedicated to research, drafting and knowledge sharing.
